Crime Victims Attorney

ROCHESTER, NY—FULL TIME, EXEMPT POSITION

Empire Justice Center, a highly respected, statewide legal services organization, is seeking an additional attorney to join our new Crime Victims legal services team. The Crime Victim Attorney will become critical members of a newly created Crime Victims Advocacy Practice, the aim of which is to provide civil (non-criminal) legal assistance in a range of substantive law matters to victims of crime.

The Empire Justice Crime Victims team will include staff in Westchester, Rochester and Central Islip. The attorneys in Rochester will serve the general low income community with a focus on victims of consumer fraud, employment discrimination and civil rights violations, including but not limited to victims of hate crimes, and other forms of discrimination. Attorneys will also coordinate in-house referrals to and from our health, education, disability and foreclosure units.

The Crime Victim Attorney will be supervised by the Project Manager Attorney and will work as part of the overall statewide team, participating in program development, required data reporting and assessments and will supervise the paralegal assigned to this project, offering mentoring and ensuring professional development opportunities.

Primary responsibilities for the Crime Victim Attorney will include:

- Ensuring that all referrals from the Crime Victim Legal Network (CVLN) are handled and tracked appropriately
- Attending CVLN meetings and trainings in accordance with grant requirements.
- Representing clients holistically to achieve clients' goals through a range of advocacy efforts including administrative hearings and litigation.
- Providing high quality, comprehensive legal advice, assistance and accompaniment of clients to appropriate courts and administrative tribunals as necessary to support each crime victim
- Actively participating in the community through outreach and engagement with community organizations, local coalitions and government agencies as appropriate to identify and advance the civil legal needs of crime victims.
- Assisting clients in understanding, applying for and obtaining relief under the Crime Victim Compensation Act
- Provide counseling, advice, and other brief services and referrals
- Work as part of the overall Crime Victims Team and actively participate in team meetings
